

Global Health Overview

Year

All

Status

All

89.00

Highest LE

36.30

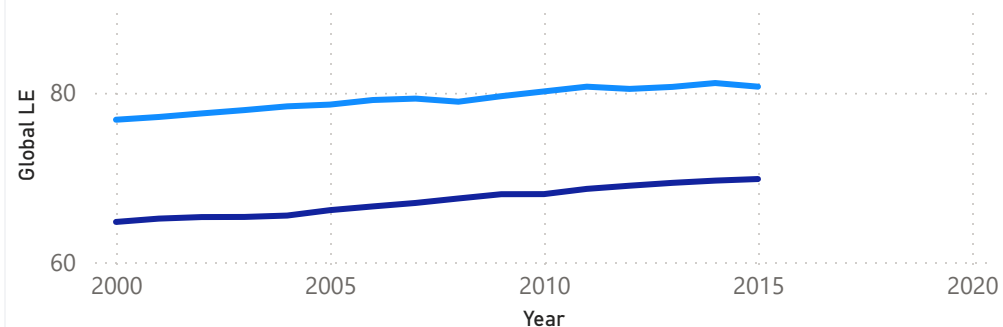

Lowest LE

69.33

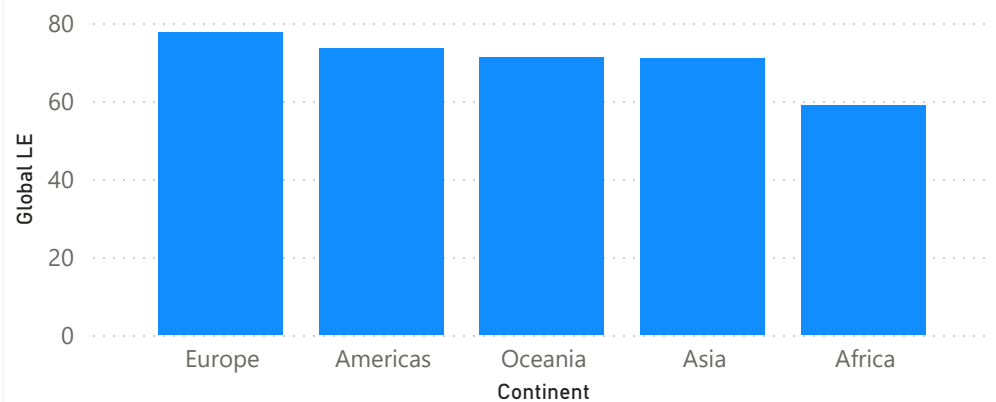

Global LE

Life Expectancy Trends by Development Status (2000–2015)

Status ● Developed ● Developing

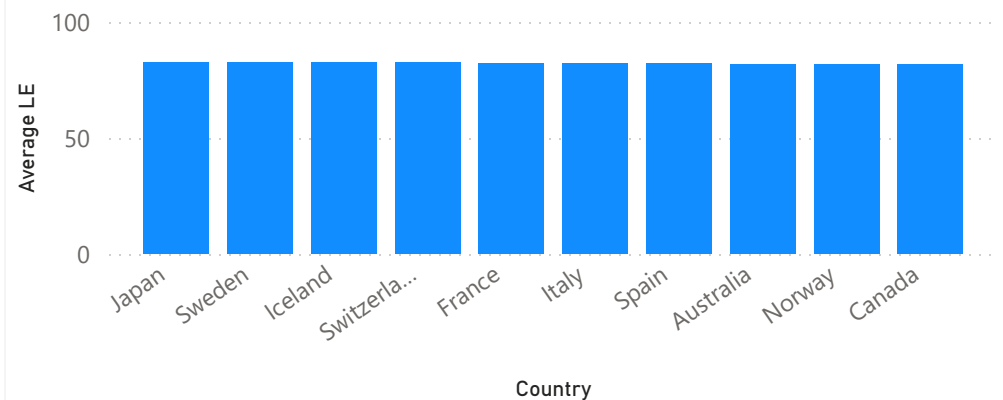

Average Life Expectancy by Continent

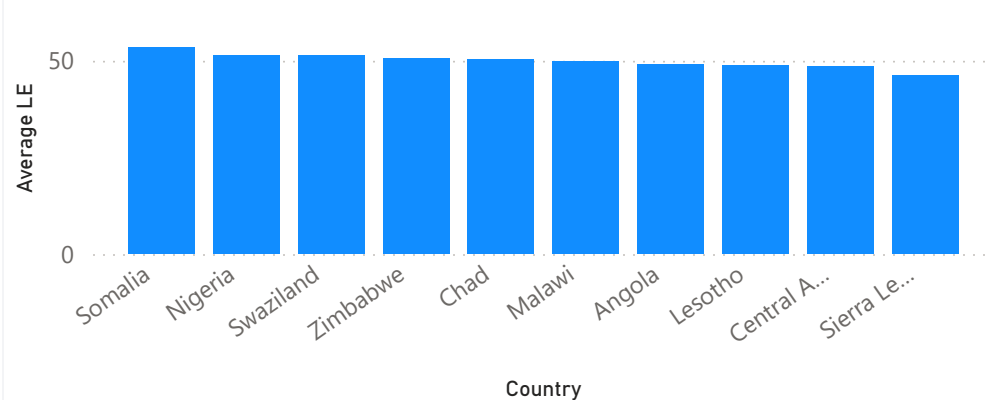

*LE= Life Expectancy

Top 10 Countries by Life Expectancy

Bottom 10 Countries by Life Expectancy

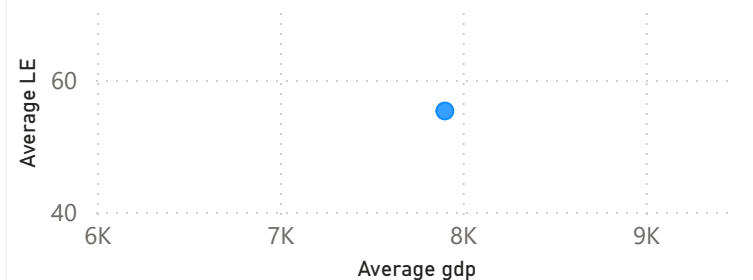

Wealth & Health: The GDP factor

0.43

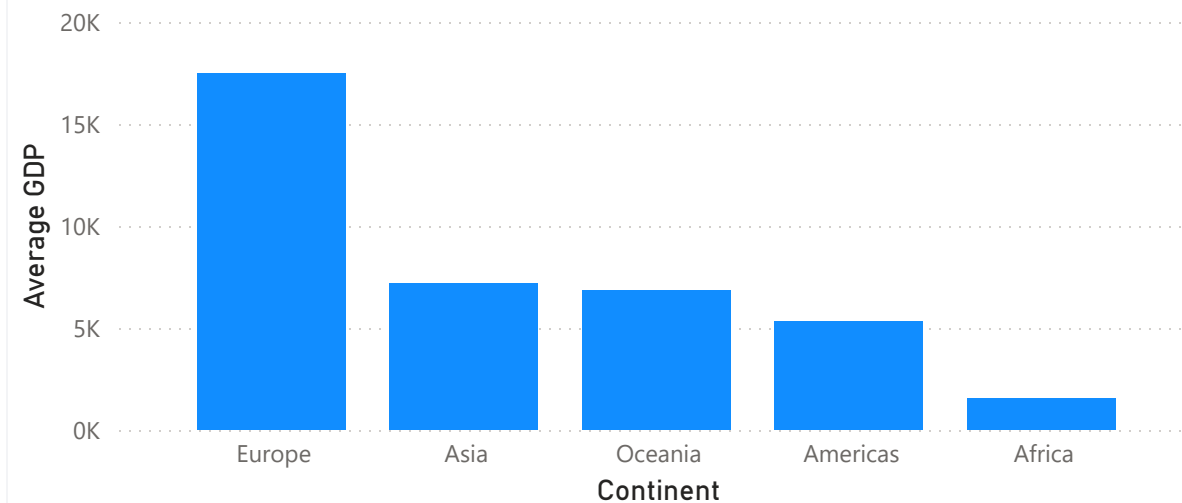

Wealth & Health Correlation

Anomalies: High GDP, Below-Average Life Expectancy

Continent ● Africa

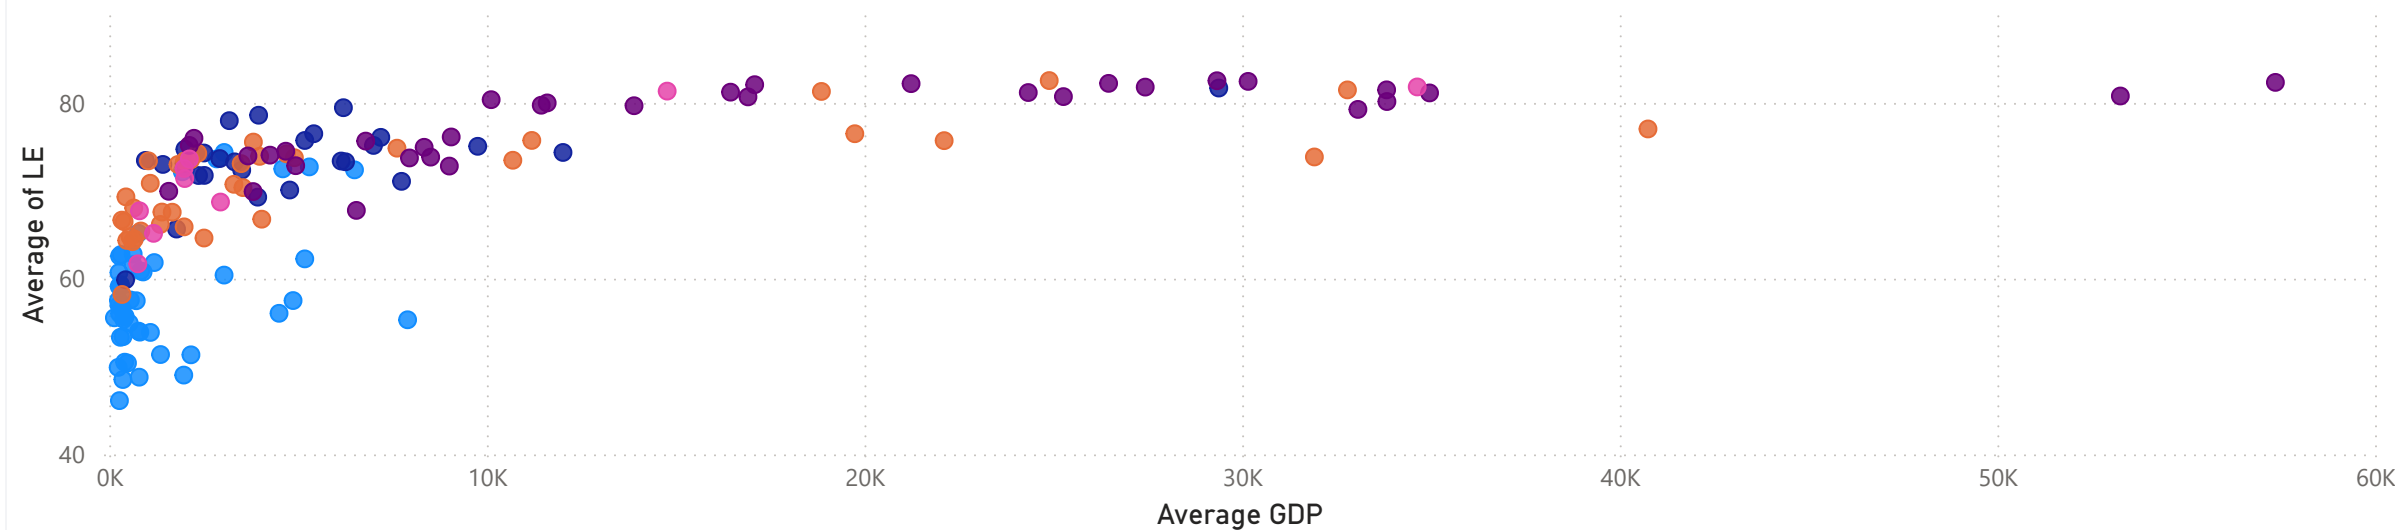

Average GDP by Continent

Wealth vs. Longevity: GDP and Life Expectancy by Country

Continent ● Africa ● Americas ● Asia ● Europe ● Oceania

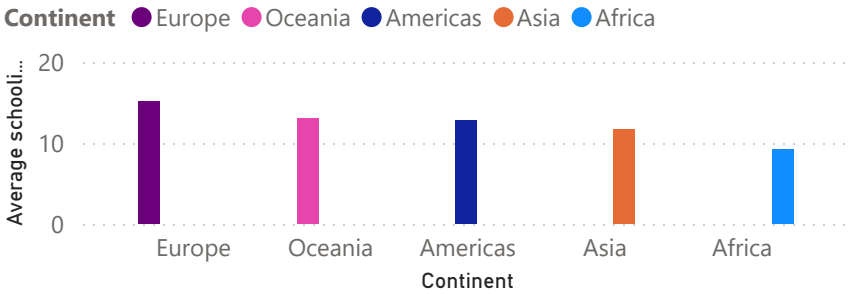

Beyond Wealth: The Schooling Factor

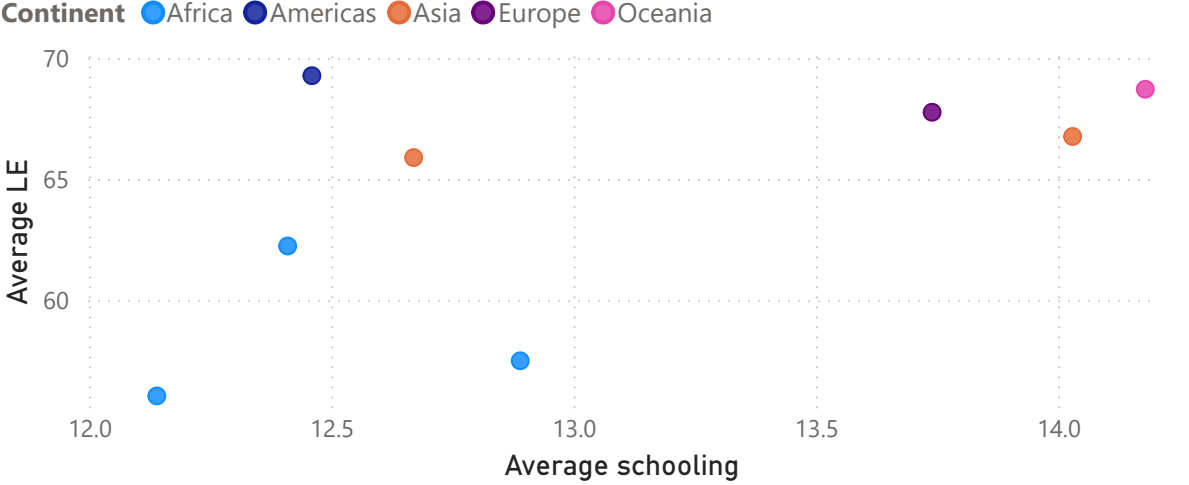

0.57

Schooling & Health Correlation

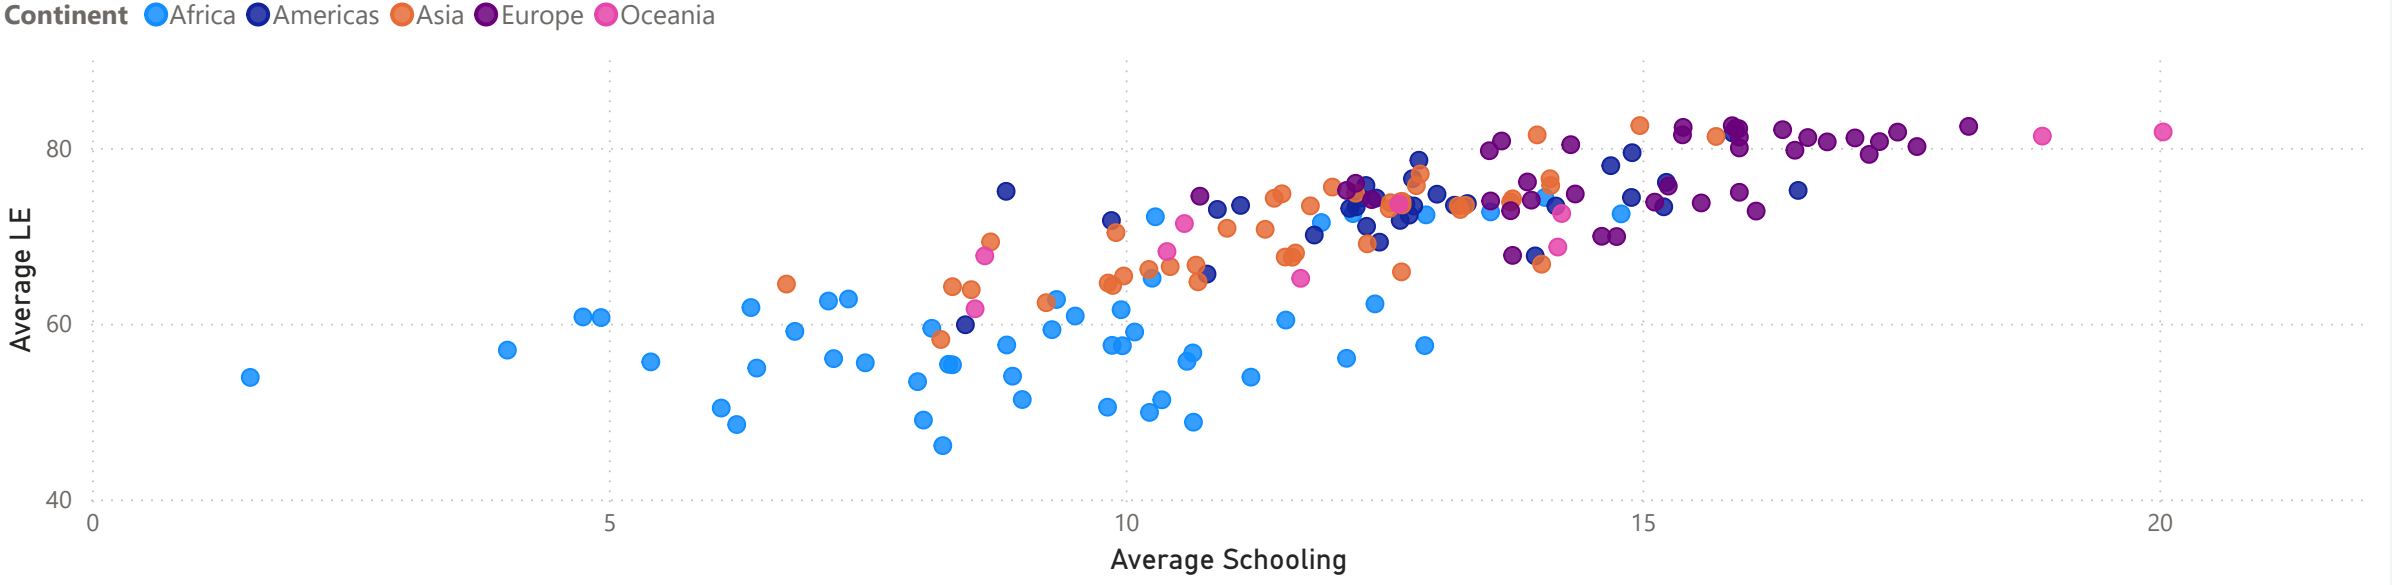

Average Schooling by Continent

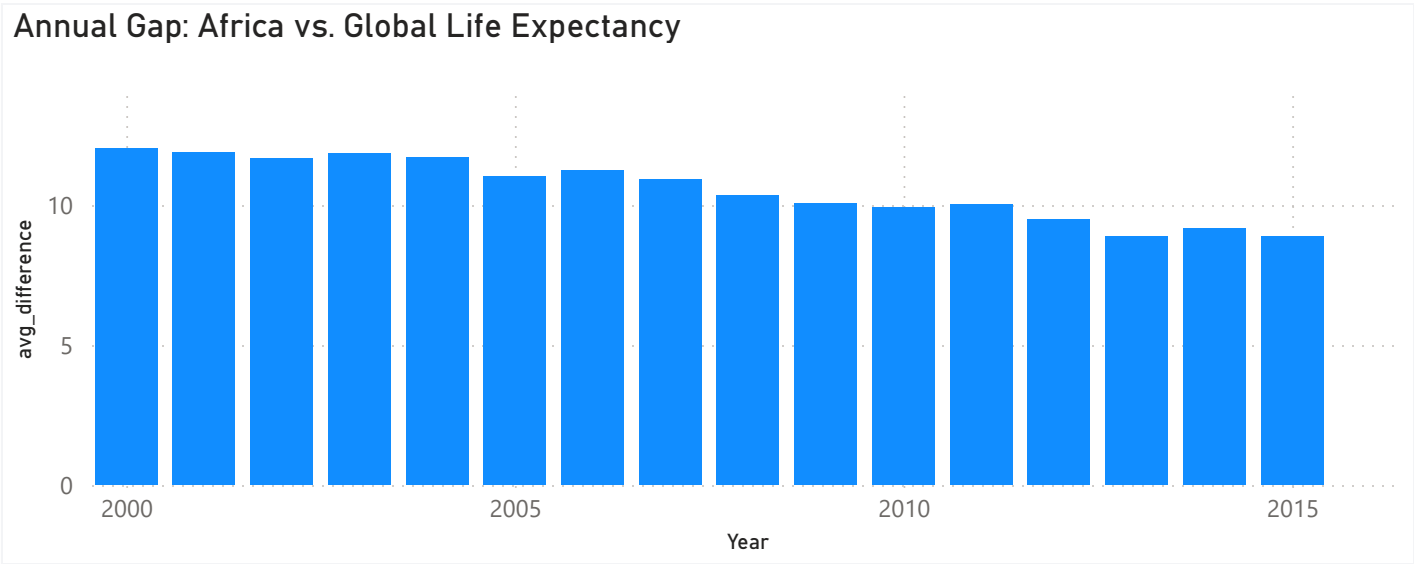

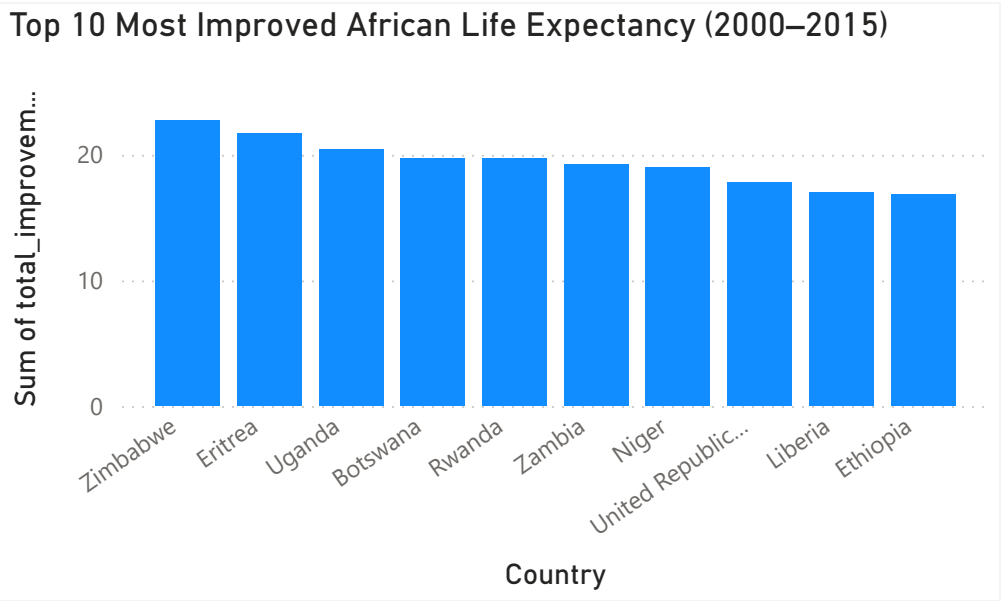

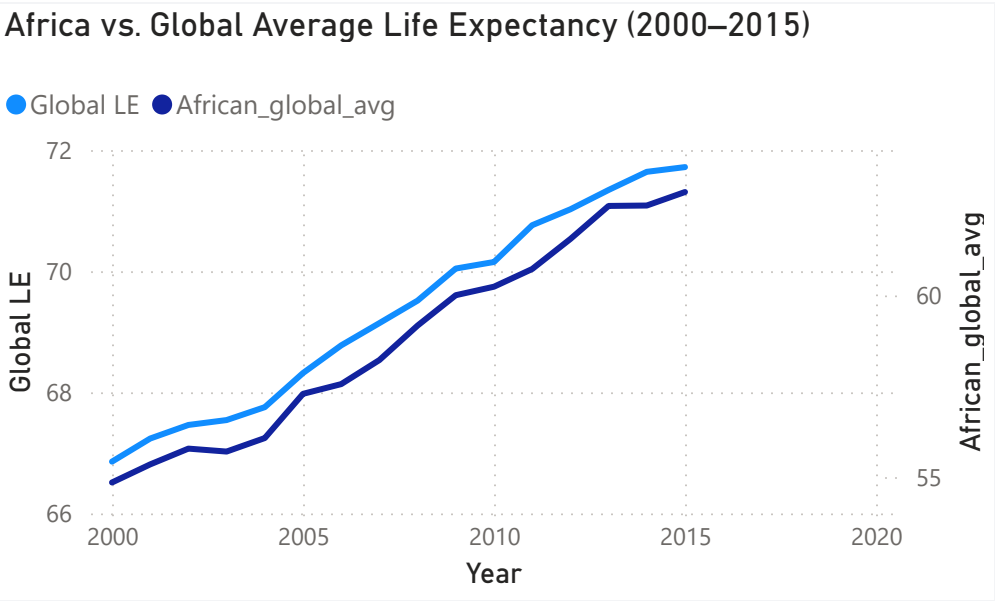

Anomalies: High Schooling, Below-Average Life Expectancy

Education vs. Longevity: Schooling Years and Life Expectancy

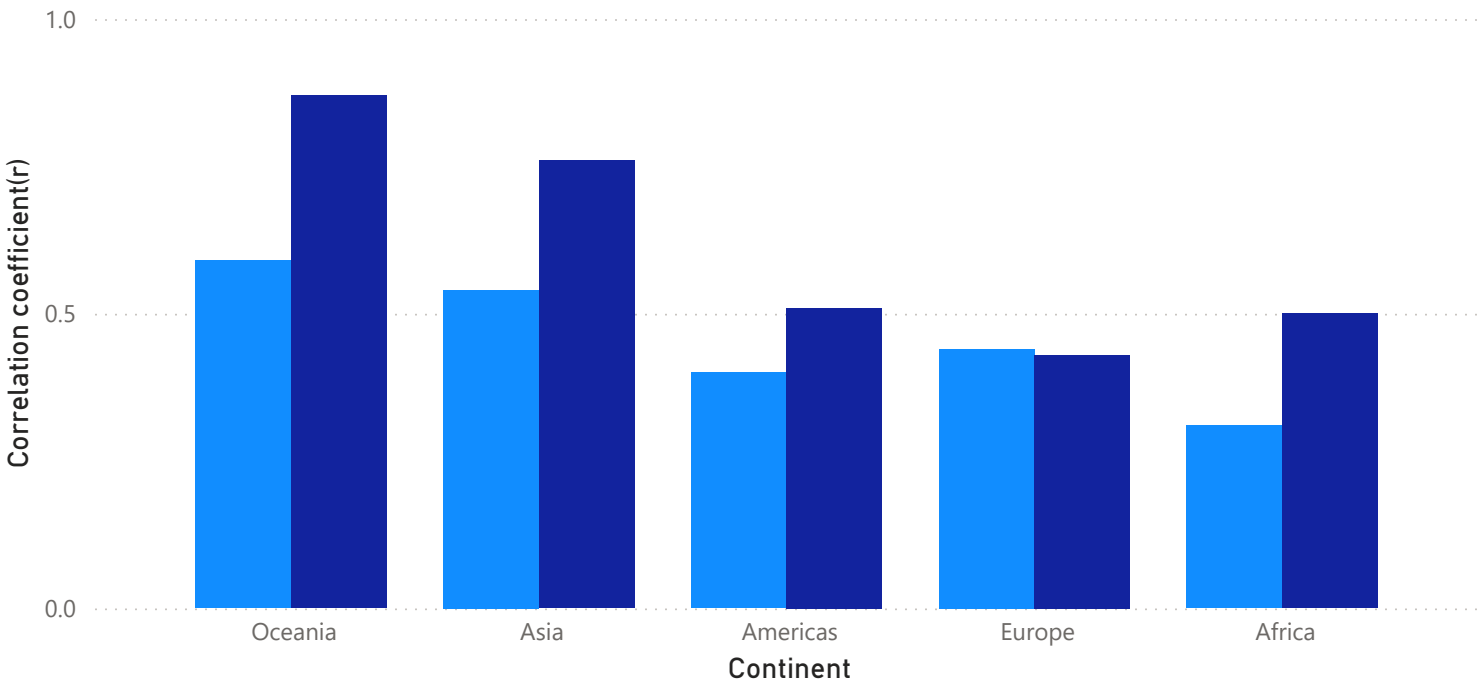

Africa in Focus

Education vs Wealth

Correlation of Life Expectancy by Continent and Drivers

Factor ● GDP ● Schooling

KEY TAKEAWAY

Across 4 of 5 continents, years of schooling correlates more strongly with life expectancy than GDP. In Africa specifically, schooling ($r=0.50$) outperforms GDP ($r=0.31$) as a predictor of population health — suggesting education investment may be a more effective lever for improving health outcomes than economic growth alone.